IT IS GOOD TO GIVE THANKS: It is with gratitude that we the McCarthy's, Christy, Patricia, Marie, Aishling, Sarah and all the family would like to extend a very sincere heartfelt thanks to all who supported and were a great source of strength to us during Senan's recent illness. It is only in times of struggle and trouble that you realise the importance of family, friends, neighbours and the community. A special word of thanks to Dr. Billy O'Connell, to the medical staff of Ennis General Hospital, to the ambulance staff and to the medical staff of the I.C.U. in Limerick Regional Hospital. To all those who showed care and concern by sending letters, Mass Bouquets, telephoning, calling to our home and visiting in the hospital we want you to know what an inspiration and what hope we gained. We would like to express our thanks to all our extended family members, to relatives near and far, to Michelle, Senan's girlfriend and her family. A special word of thanks to all Senan's co workers, friends and team mates especially all those who were present at the special Mass of Healing for Senan which took place in Coore Church celebrated by Fr. Larkin. As an expression of our thanks a mass is offered for your intentions and ask your continued support through prayer.

CHRISTIAN MEDIATION DAY: On Saturday 21st April 2007, 10.30am-5pm with Cait Ni Loingsigh at Sunyata Retreat Centre, Sixmilebridge, Co. Clare. This day of mediation practice will be held in silence to allow the participants time for reflection and time to enter into the inner journey in a more meaningful way. Particular emphasis will be given to the use of a mantra which is a sacred word used in mediation. Input will be given on mediation from a Christian perspective drawing on the teachings of the early Desert Fathers and especially 'The Way of the Pilgrim'. There will be three periods of silent mediation and some time for questions. So why not treat yourself to this day of renewal and strengthen your mediation practice with some like minded people in the beautiful setting of Sunyata Buddhist Retreat Centre. Cost: €50 (includes vegetarian lunch and refreshments).
