TIDY TOWNS: As we are now quickly approaching the 50th Anniversary of the Tidy Towns Competition your support would be very much appreciated in helping to create a colourful display of floral arrangements and be aware of any litter throughout our village. If each individual would be responsible for their own premises this would go a long way to gaining points in this year's 50th Anniversary competition. If you require flowers or plants contact 085 7206720. There has been a lot of damage done to the recently planted flowers and plants so we ask everyone to please appreciate the hard work and money that's put into keeping our village looking good.
