Even though there are days I wish I could change some things that happened in the past, there's one reason the rear view mirror is so small and the windshield is so big, where you are headed is much more important than what you've left behind.

Will meet in the Sacristy of Mullagh Church next Tuesday April 12th at 8.30pm.

Training for Sunday liturgies when a priest may not be available.

This very important training continues, in conjunction with other Críocha Callan cluster parishes next Thursday night in Inagh Hall at 8pm. We are hoping to have a team of people trained for each church for this very important ministry. This training is something that has been called for by parishioners over recent years and we hope to avail of this opportunity to take part. This is a reality facing every parish sooner rather than later. It is important to be prepared.
