Reflection

The trouble with Christ is that he often comes at the wrong time, and often wearing the wrong kind of clothes.

The other day he came to my door. He couldn't have come at a worse time. I had a hundred and one things to do. He just stood there, a faint smile on his face.

I didn't ask him to come in, in case he might decide to stay all day. Eventually I said: ‘What do you want?’ ‘Nothing, I was just passing by, so I thought I'd drop in and say “hello”, he replied. Sensing my mood, he excused himself and went away.

When he was gone I was mad with myself. Though he said he didn't want anything, I'm sure he did want something. He just wanted a little companionship. But I refused him with the excuse that I was too busy.

Ah, if only he had come at a more suitable time.

POPE LEO'S PRAYER:

Jesus, Lord of our history,

Faithful companion and living presence,

You who never tire of coming to meet us,

Here we are, in need of your peace.

We live in times of fear and division.

Sometimes we act as if we were alone,

Building walls that separate us from one another, Forgetting that we are brothers and sisters. Send us your Spirit, Lord,

To rekindle within us

The desire to understand one another, to listen,

To live together with respect and compassion.

Give us the courage to seek paths of dialogue, To respond to conflict with gestures of fraternity, To open our hearts to others without fear of differences. Make us builders of bridges, Able to overcome borders and ideologies, Able to see others through the eyes of the heart, Recognizing in every person an inviolable dignity. Help us create spaces where hope can flourish, Where diversity is not a threat But a richness that makes us more human. AMEN.
