Trócaire have now opened an emergency appeal to respond to the food crisis affecting much of East and Southern Africa. See the following link: <https://www.trocaire.org/whatwedo/wherewework/food-crisis>.

Emergency Appeal: The worst drought in decades has left approximately 60 million people, ten times the population of the island of Ireland, facing hunger across the developing world.

What is Trócaire doing? Working with our partners in Ethiopia, we are helping to provide aid to 674,791 people in Ethiopia. The support we are giving people includes food aid and water. We are also working with tens of thousands of others in Malawi, Zimbabwe, Honduras and Guatemala in response to this crisis. Is my donation going to the people in need?

Yes, all donations from our emergency appeal are ring-fenced for drought-relief projects in countries affected by this crisis.

Why is Trócaire's Executive Director in Ethiopia with Mary Robinson? Mary Robinson was recently appointed to the position of UN Special Envoy for El Nino. As part of her role she is trying to raise awareness about the crisis. Unfortunately this crisis has received very little media attention to date so we are hoping that by travelling to the affected region with Mary Robinson that the public will learn about what is happening and will support our relief efforts.

Kindness

I would rather have one little rose from the garden of a friend
Than to have the choicest flowers
When my stay on earth must end.
I would rather have one pleasant word
in kindness said to me, than flattery when my heart is cold
And life has ceased to be.
I would rather have a loving smile
from friends I know are true than tears shed round my casket
when this world I've bid adieu.
Bring me flowers today
whether pink, or white or red,
I'd rather have one blossom now
