A THANK YOU FROM FR. MARTIN SHANAHAN

I would like to thank everyone that supported me and helped over the past few years and especially last weekend for my Ordination.

It was a very special occasion for me. I have so many 'thank you's'. I'll start with my son Eoin & all my family who have stood by me through think and thin.

Thank God above all for my vocation. To Bishop Fintan, for his guidance and direction through my years of training. To Fr. Tom Hogan and his team in Ennis Parish and the staff of Ennis Parish office who prepared the booklets. and all my fellow priests for all their support.

To my cluster Críocha Callan, all the members of the choir who sang so magnificent on both occasions, to the musicians, The Kilmurry Ibrickane Football Club, Cooney's Quilty Tavern, Apostolic Work Society, The FÁS group, RSS Group, the Finance Committee, The Pastoral Council, Altar Servers, Eucharistic Ministers, Sacristans, Readers, The Parish Office, Volunteers and to all those who baked food and catered for everyone.

To the Parish for my beautiful Chalice and Paten. A special thank you to Fr. Anthony McMahon for all his help in making my Ordination weekend the success that it was.

If I've forgotten anyone by name, just know that you will be in my thoughts and prayers.

SYMPATHY: We offer our sympathy, support and prayers to the family, relatives and friends of Jimmy Callinan, Northampton, son of the late Agnes Callinan, Quilty. Annakathrin Becker, Germany mother of Heinz Becker, Creggane. May they rest in peace.

BAPTISM: We welcome into God's Family and the Christian Community Zoe Ellen Cleary baptised in Quilty Church this weekend.

ENNIS PARISH, led by Fr Tom Hogan, will make a pilgrimage to Italy on October 15-22. They will fly from Dublin to Bari in the heel of Italy and spend the first three nights at the shrine of Padre Pio in San Giovanni Rotondo. This is a very special year as it is the 50th anniversary of the death of Padre Pio and the 100th anniversary of the appearance of the stigmata, the wounds of Christ, on his body. The group will then drive to Sorrento, visiting the lovely town of Pietrelcina on the way. Padre Pio was born here and the whole town is filled with places associated with him. The last four nights will be spent in the famous resort of Sorrento. Perched on a clifftop, the town has unrivalled views of the Bay of Naples and Mount Vesuvius. From here the group will do a boat trip along the spectacular Amalfi Coast to the colourful town of Positano. The return flight is from the nearby airport of Naples to Dublin. CONGRATULATIONS TO OISÍN MEADE, CATHAL TALTY AND MATTHEW CAMPBELL, PUPILS OF ANNAGH N.S., who represented Co. Clare at the Munster GAA Skills Competition for all Primary Schools, having won the Clare Final a few weeks previously. Our boys finished 3rd in Munster. A mere 10 points separated the 1st three teams, with only 1-point difference between 2nd and 3rd place. What a wonderful achievement and experience for all involved.

COORE CHURCH: There is now a map of the graveyard in Coore together with alphabetical index on display on the back wall of the church. A special thanks to Mary & Martin Sexton for all the hard work that has gone into this. Also a special thanks to Joe Pilkington who made the cabinet that contains the map and the holder for the folder.
