NOVEMBER—REMEMBERING THE DEAD

November is the month we remember our dead. In your box of envelopes you will find a sheet in which you can write the list of your dead and drop it back to the church/or put it in the basket on Saturday evening or Sunday Morning. We will remember our beloved dead in our masses during November.

QUILTY GRAVEYARD

In 2012 we collected to purchase an extension to Quilty Graveyard for our beloved dead. We now need to develop this new extension. We recently put in a new road and we hope to shortly put up a fence and the new extension. We appeal to you for your support. Next week you will receive a letter asking for your support. We ask you to put your contribution into the envelope provided and drop it back to the Parish Office or drop it into the basket at Mass on Saturday evening or Sunday Morning.

We have a number of people from war torn countries staying in Miltown Malbay who are very poor. A second collection to reach out to their needs will be held on next weekend at all Masses. Please be as generous as you can.

"If foreigners frighten me,
It is because they resemble me in some way.
They frighten me because, intimately,
I am afraid of myself.
And what if these people were me?
The truth is that they are.
Or, rather, it behoves me to act as if they were,
If he or she is a foreigner in my country
Then I will be one too."
(Elie Wisel)

Reflection

They do not leave
They are not gone
They look upon us still
They walk among the valleys now
They stride upon the hill
Their smile is in the summer sky
Their grace is in the breeze
Their memories whisper in the grass
Their calm is in the dew
Their light is in the winter snow
Their tears in the rain
Their merriment runs in the brook
Their laughter in the lane
Their gentleness is in the flowers
They fly in Autumn leaves
They do not leave, they are not gone
'Tis only we that grieve.
