Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love you above all things,

And I desire to receive you into my soul.

Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally,

Come at least spiritually into my heart.

I embrace you as if you were already there

And unite myself wholly to you.

Never permit me to be separated from you. Amen

NEW MINISTRIES

At Baptism each of us were called and sent to each other in community.

We are called everyday too Minister to each other
("As the Father sent me so I am sending you")

At present in the Diocese 13 people are training for the Ministry of Pastoral Care. Their focus will be on reaching out to those who are vulnerable in our Parishes ie, the sick, the bereaved and those on the margins.

Rita O'Dwyer is training for the Ministry of Pastoral care from our Cluster. Rita has done the First Friday call many times before the lockdown and is engaged in a number of Pastoral initiatives in our cluster.

There are also 12 other people training for the Ministry of Catechist in the Diocese. It is very likely that preparation for the Sacraments will be taken out of the schools and so catechists will prepare the children for Baptism, First Communion and confirmation in the future.

The future of the faith in Ireland will depend on people within our communities handing on the wonderful gift of Faith.

I salute hugely those who have given their time to prepare for these two valuable Ministries and I ask you to support them and welcome them too, the future of faith in our parishes depends on their generosity. Soon they will come to the end of their course and will be sent into our communities. The very future of Faith will depend on their good work.

REFLECTION

An Easter Embrace

I welcome you Easter and invite you many gifts
To the deep, deep recesses of my soul...

Easter Light, bathe me in the warm, nurturing radiance of your glow;

Burn passionately through me, proclaiming the dazzling wonderment of resurrection.

Easter word echo again and again the story of our salvation—yesterday, today and forever;
Resound from every human heart, from womb to tomb,
the sacred story which is ours to share.

Easter Water douse, drench, drown me with your water of life;

Cleanse my soul and wash over me with the torrents of your love that bring me to birth once more.

Easter bread break open my body to receive your nourishment, strengthen me to share in building your body
here on earth;

Bring to life the wilderness and the city with the manna of faith in Christ.

I welcome you Easter, I sit in your presence and contemplate you awhile and truly I exult: Christ is risen; Deo Gratias; Thanks be to God.

REFLECTION - SERENITY PRAYER

Lord, grant me the serenity to accept things that I cannot change,

the courage to change the things that I can and the wisdom to know the difference. Living one day at a time;

Enjoying one moment at a time;

Accepting hardships as the pathway to peace.

Taking, as Christ did, this sinful world as it is, Not as I would have it,

Trusting that he will make all things right. If I surrender to his will;

So that I may be reasonably happy in this life and supremely happy with him forever in the next. Amen.

Sacristan in Quilty Church
