Reflection

*Life is fleeting, and can be taken away from us
In the twinkling of an eye.
However, the brevity and fragility of life brings home to us
Just how precious is the treasure we carry in earthen vessels.
Lord, give us the kind of faith
That will enable us to live our joyfully
The mystery of our fragile human condition,
Which sees us suspended between earth and heaven,
Between time and eternity,
And between nothingness and infinity.*
