Next Sunday is Mission Sunday and we will have our annual collection supporting the missions at all masses next weekend. Purple envelope in box of envelopes can be used for this. 'I have come so that you can have life and live it to the full!' World Missions Ireland on behalf of the Society for the Propagation of the Faith thank you for your support on Mission Sunday. In 2014, the Mission Sunday Collection in Killaloe Diocese amounted to €64,642. Thank you for your great generosity in difficult times. The people in Killaloe Diocese have been urged to support missionaries working in some of the world's poorest countries by donating during the forthcoming Mission Sunday collection on October 18th. The theme for World Mission Sunday in Ireland this year 2015 is "Abundant Life". As we thank you for your wonderful generosity to the Missions over the years we invite you to please continue to help our young churches to share the gift of faith through your prayer and whatever financial assistance you can.

TO CHURCH

A church goer wrote a letter to the editor of a newspaper and complained that it made no sense to go to church every Sunday.

'I've gone for 30 years now' and in that time I have heard 3,000 sermons, but for the life of me, I can't remember a single one of them so, I think I am wasting my time and the pastors are wasting their time by giving sermons at all.'

This stated a real controversy in the 'Letters to the editor' column. Much to the delight of the editor, it went on for weeks until someone wrote this clincher:

I've been married for 30 years now, In that time my wife has cooked some 32,000 meals.

But for the life of me, I cannot recall the entire menu for a single one of those meals. But I do know this. They all nourished me and gave me the strength I needed to do my work. If my wife had not given me these meals, I would be physically dead today. Likewise, if I had not gone to church for nourishment, I would be spiritually dead today. When you are down to nothing...God is up to something!

Faith sees the invisible, believes in the incredible and receives the impossible! Thank God for our physical and our spiritual nourishment.

SYMPATHY: We offer our sympathy, support and prayers to the family, relatives and friends of Diarmuid Meade, Ennis & Clarecastle & Patrick Killeen, Mullagh & Kiladysert buried during the week. May they rest in peace.
