Easter

We all experience moments of dying in our lives. We get a foretaste of death when we live in bitterness, when prejudice blinds us, when loneliness enfolds us, when fear oppresses us, when sadness overwhelms us and when we give in to despair.

In those moments the world is closing in on us and something dies within us.

But we also experience moments of resurrection in our lives: when we know true love, when we are truly accepted, when we are forgiven, when we open our hearts to our neighbour, and when hope returns. In those moments our horizon is widening and we can feel ourselves emerging from the tomb.

Lord Jesus, may the power of your resurrection touch whatever is dead within us and bring it back to life.

Let the splendour of your resurrection light up the world, scattering the shadows of death and helping all of us to walk in radiant hope towards the new life that is to come.

Easter in your heart

Christ rises in your heart when:

You wake in the morning with a new hope;

You go to bed with a forgiving heart;

You truly grieve at another's loss;

Your heart rejoices at another's joy;

You keep your temper with a trying friend;

You refuse to nurse a niggling hurt;

You try again to transform your fears;

You face the routine of another day;

You try again to say 'I'm sorry'

Your broken heart begins to mend

You noticed beauty you missed before;

You weep at the greed that causes war;

You delight when love comes around again;

You put together the broken pieces,

And make, with God, a work of art;

You dare to love despite the grief;

You discover, within your winter,

A summer-time that never ends;

You hold the earth and all its people

As you hold the hearts of those you love;

You trust in dawn at the darkest hour;

You accept your weakness and it makes you strong;

When you try to live in the present moment.

When you know your freedom is truly won,

And you dance on your grave like the Easter Son.
