REFLECTION

The foolish have no oil in their lamps.

They burn themselves out

Through a life of self-seeking

And dedication to worldly cares and vanities.

They do not even think of the Lord,

Much less waiting for his coming.

The wise, one the other hand, have oil in their lamps.

They are detached from themselves

And from the cares of the world,

And are full of charity.

They are waiting for the Lord,

And desire nothing else but his coming.

Let us keep our minds alight with faith,

Our souls alight with hope,

And our hearts alight with love,

As we wait in joyful hope

For the coming of our Saviour, Jesus Christ.

This year we are marking prisoner Sunday in the diocese of Killaloe on Sunday November 12th we invite people to pray for prisoners, their families and their victims using the prisoners prayer card.

Pope Francis asks us as Christians to reach out to those who live in the margins of society, we can do this through our prayers and raising awareness. Cards left in porches of the Churches.

PRAYER FOR PRISONERS

We pray your grace Lord Jesus for prisoners and their families, who walk their sentence with their loved one.

We pray your healing Lord for the trauma that has caused them to hurt themselves, their families, and their victims.

We pray they will turn to You and begin their journey of recovery, finding compassionate support in our Christian society. Jesus, we trust in you. Amen.
