We begin Holy Week today with an account of the triumphant entrance of Jesus into Jerusalem, but it is a short-lived triumph. In a few short days we will celebrate the Lord's passion and death. There is a lot to reflect on in these days of Holy Week. By Easter Sunday, we will be able to recognise, like the crowd at the end of today's Passion, 'In truth this was a son of God'

Dawn Mass 5.30am in Quilty Village (in front of Cooneys)

Please note change of venue and half hour extra in bed! Cup of tea afterwards, cakes / scones etc are welcome on the morning. A short meeting will take place for those interested in being involved on Holy Saturday in Quilty Village at 4pm to finalise preparations. All are welcome as we celebrate the risen Lord.

Fr. Anthony McMahon & Visiting Confessors 'Holy Week—Parish Reconciliation Service'.

Pope Francis on Confession'

"No matter how ashamed we feel, we shouldn't be afraid.

'Do not be afraid of Confession'

One who is in line to confess himself feels all these things— even shame— but then, when he finishes confessing, he leaves free, great, beautiful, forgiven, happy. And this is the beauty of confession." 'Pope Francis also encouraged those who have been away from confession whether for two weeks or forty years, to return to the Sacraments. 'Jesus is here...and he receives you with so much love.'
