RCB Are delighted to be taking part in a national education promotion campaign involving all the community radio stations in Ireland. The aim of the campaign is to offer persons over the age of 55 free training on how to put together a radio show looking for change. Speaking up for change—is a great opportunity for people to learn how to do radio. If you are over 55 and there is a subject you would like to promote or if you are interested in learning how to create a radio show, please contact Sadhbh Smyth from RCB on 065 9083022 or email rcb.ie
