TAKE, BLESS, BREAK AND GIVE

In the Eucharist bread is taken, blessed, broken and given.

In life we are taken, blessed, broken and given.

The priest takes the bread in his hands and blesses it during the Eucharistic prayer; then he breaks it and it is given to us as the body of Christ.

Through our birth and baptism we are taken into God's hands; as the bread is taken, so too are we.

In life we are blessed by family, friends, love and joy; as the bread is blessed, so too are we.

We are broken by failure, sin, pain and heartbreak; as the bread is broken, so too are we.

In death we are given back to the mystery from which we came; as the bread is given, so too are we.

When we take, bless, break and give bread to one another, we believe the Lord to be especially present in our midst.

But we must lean to accept in his memory we will be taken, blessed, broken and given for the life of the world.

CHURCH PRAYER

If after Church, you wait a while
Someone may greet you with a smile.

But if you quickly rise and flee,
We'll all seem cold and stiff maybe.

The one beside you in the pew
is perhaps a stranger too.

All here, like you have fears and cares,

All of us need each other's prayers

In fellowship we bid you meet,

With us around God's Mercy Seat.

Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.

I love you above all things,

And I desire to receive you into my soul.

Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally,

Come at least spiritually into my heart.

I embrace you as if you were already there

And unite myself wholly to you.

Never permit me to be separated from you.

Amen.
