Migrant Sunday—15th January

Pope Benedict established this Day of Remembrance as a response to the massive displacements and suffering caused by the First World War. Today the Church invites us to remember all migrants, those who have left Ireland to find a new life and those who have left their own countries to come to live here. Those migrants who have come here to live, bring gifts just as the Irish did to the countries they have gone to over the centuries. Today we remember and pray for all who experience themselves as “foreigners” or “outsiders” where they live.

SYMPATHY: We pray for the repose of the soul of Patrick Moloney, Lissynealon, Mullagh buried this week : Robert Watchorn, Kildimo, Miltown Malbay Buried this week : Tommy Russell, died recently in New Jersey, cousin of Tess Conlon, Clounlaheen. May they rest in peace.
