Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.

I love you above all things,

And I desire to receive you into my soul.

Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally,

Come at least spiritually into my heart.

I embrace you as if you were already there

And unite myself wholly to you.

Never permit me to be separated from you.

Amen

Reflection by Donal Neary S.T.

You entrusted me with two talents;

Here are two more I have made.

We are familiar with the story of the boy who wanted to bring a gift to Jesus at his birth.

He saw others bringing expensive gifts of gold, frankincense and myrrh;

He wondered what he had to offer,

And thought of his drum,

And how he could play a song For Jesus,

Mary and Joseph.

A simple story, and isn't it true about our gifts and talents?

Each of us has different qualities, gifts:

All are given by God

And are valued in God's love:

Gifts of music, sport and art,

Of conversation and humour,

Of compassion and leadership;

Gifts of friendship, prayer and caring for others,

Of listening and encouraging;

Whatever your gift, your talent;

Your gift of being a caring parent,

Of being able to help a younger generation in any way;

Be grateful, each of us has a 'bit of God' within us;

And each of us can offer to God

In our love and care for others

What he has given to us.

He looks on us, and loves each of us;

Sees us as we are and loves us,

Sees us as we can be and calls each of us,

In our own personality and talents,

To grow in love, To offer our talents in his service,

And to become more like him.

Sympathy: We offer our sympathy, support and prayers to the family of: Paddy Hurley, Mountscott. Rest in Peace Paddy.

BLESSING OF THE GRAVES

November is a special month of memory, we won't be able to do the blessing of the graves this year in the normal way because of Covid 19. We invite you to say a prayer at your family grave or grave of a friend or neighbour. There is a pack with a prayer at the grave and some Holy Water in the Churches. We invite you to take the pack and to pray at the grave of your loved one in this month of November.

Because 2020 has been a year like no other, the Diocese of Killaloe, in collaboration with the Anglican Diocese of Limerick, Killaloe & Ardfer, has decided to hold a Day of Remembrance on November 20th for those who have died in 2020. This Day aims to acknowledge those who have died this year and those who have been bereaved through the death of loved ones. It includes the remembrance of those who have died as a result of the global pandemic, as well as those who have died from other causes during the year. The day will help us to remember our own beloved dead but also acknowledge and pray for those whose passing and mourning has been so cruelly affected by the COVID protocols in hospitals and nursing homes and around funerals.

The focus of the Remembrance Day will be on short moments of prayer in which everyone can participate at home. These include the following:

A short radio message and blessing from Bishop Fintan and Bishop Kenneth Kearon (Church of Ireland) will mark the beginning of the day's prayer. (This will also be available on diocesan and parish websites, on Facebook and other social media platforms).

A Diocese-wide moment of silence and individual prayer at 12 noon to remember the dead and bereaved. The angelus bell will be a reminder of this moment.

A short prayer time to be broadcast on Clare FM on Friday evening around 7 p.m.

Masses Times

Morning & Weekend Masses will be available for people to view online in Kilmurry Ibrickane Parish and Miltown Malbay Parish.

Prayer to St Joseph

God, our heavenly Father, grant us the fortitude of Christ your Son to face the Covid-19 crisis with trust, patience and compassion. Give us the grace of the Holy Spirit to free us from fear and look forward together to the future with healing and hope. Through the intercession of Saint Joseph, the guardian of Jesus, and Mary his mother and Mother of the Church, may we be guided through this time of peril. Preserve us in peace; protect the vulnerable; keep safe our health care workers and all who serve society, at home and abroad. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.
