THINGS CAN CHANGE

Things can change: water can become wine, families can be reconciled, justice can replace violence, peace can cover the land.

And people can change when they get a chance. Love can change hardness of heart into compassion, prayer can change a selfish style of life into generosity.

With the touch of Jesus water can change into wine, and men and women can change, and become more like God.

God sees us as we are, and as we can be.

As the water was changed at the word of Jesus and the prayer of Mary, so too the world can change at the word of Jesus, made active through us, and the prayer of Mary, so too the world can change at the word of Jesus, made active through us, and the prayer of Mary and of his followers.

We are not stuck in the present, nor are we prisoners of the past. The followers of Jesus are people with a future. We are the people of the resurrection.

And so this day we make a prayer for justice where there is inequality, for peace where there is violence, for love where there is hate. And all this can happen, when we try to put on the mind and heart of God.

SYMPATHY: We offer our sympathy to the family, relatives & friends of Síle Mc Nicholas, St Alban's, England sister of Ann O'Brien, Bonavilla who died this week.

WORLD DAY FOR MIGRANTS & REFUGEES: Today is Refugee & Migrant Sunday when we are reminded to celebrate with thanks the diversity of peoples in Ireland. The Church, like the nation, is made up of peoples from many different countries with different languages and customs. We are also invited today to pray for migrants & refugees that they may be welcomed warmly into our midst. This year's World Day for Migrants theme - "Minor migrants and refugees" - touches an aspect that Christians view with great attention, remembering the most vulnerable people in our midst, children. Children are dependant on others for food, shelter and guidance. Children often suffer the most in times of trial and difficulty. Guide and bring those children who are strangers in our land to a place of peace and safety and help us to comfort them and bring help in their time of need.
