GROUP WATER SCHEME: Somebody asked the question recently "How long is it since someone first came up with the idea of a Clounlaheen Group Water Scheme"? The answer is difficult, twenty years at least. However something we do know is that over the past couple of weeks the scheme which will serve Clounlaheen Middle, Clounlaheen East, part of Coore plus a few houses on the Western tip of Inagh and Kilmaley parishes began to "flow". As we stated in this Newsletter when trying to promote the scheme about three years ago its value to the area is beyond calculation.
