Act of Spiritual Communion

Act of Spiritual Communion My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love you above all things, And I desire to receive you into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally, Come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace you as if you were already there and unite myself wholly to you. Never permit me to be separated from you. Amen

Children with Autism Attending Mass

A Sensory Kit is available in each church for children attending mass with autism. Please come to the sacristy before mass to receive the kit. We thank Susan Crawford for making the kit available.

WAR OF INDEPENDENCE COMMEMORATION IN MULLAGH. There is a War of Independence commemoration planned for this Sunday October 17th in Mullagh, outside the church gates after 11am Mass. This will include the unveiling of a plaque, the laying of a wreath and a roll of honour. This commemoration is in memory of the Volunteers of the 4th Battalion West Clare Brigade, Irish Republican Army 1919-1921, from A /Company Mullagh, B/Company Coore, C/Company Knocknaha, D/Company Kilmurry Ibrickane, E/Company Quilty and their comrades in Cumann na mBán. The keynote speaker will be Eoin Shanahan author of 'The hand that held the gun'. All are welcome to attend as we remember and commemorate the great fortitude, strength and spirit of these brave men and women, our own predecessors and those of our neighbours one hundred years later.

FCJ SPIRITUALITY HOUSE, SPANISH POINT: For decades the FCJ sisters have loved to come to Ibricken Lodge for summer holidays and retreats. Their summer home near the Armada is spoken about with great love and affection across the international community. Now they would like to share their home with the wider community – offering events and course across the winter for locals and those who might come to Clare seeking a quiet healing place away from the bustle of life. The sisters will be back each summer, but would love the house to be a calm haven for all across the rest of the year. The sisters have asked Nóirín Lynch to lead this project on their behalf. Nóirín is a Limerick woman, (with Miltown roots), living in Clarecastle who has worked in parish and diocese for 26 years and was director of the Margaret Aylward Centre in Glasnevin, Dublin for the past 3 years. She hopes the house will continue to be a quiet oasis or haven for all, where we can accompany one another on our spiritual journey. That might look like being able to call in for a cup of tea and a quiet moment, a meditation morning, a book club, art or movie night or a weekend workshop. Over the next few weeks Nóirín will set up contact details and a timetable of events starting in November. These talks, workshops, and coffee mornings will give people the chance to come visit and experience the space. We would really love if you could come visit and share with us your memories, your hopes and expectations for this unique and lovely spirituality house on the edge of the sea.

REFLECTION

The request that Jesus refused to grant James and John were two opportunists. Their aim was to rise in the ranks. To achieve their end they did not hesitate to beg. They did not mind how much envy and resentment They aroused in their companions. Their aim was to scramble up the career ladder. But at what price to themselves? If in the course of their rise to the top, People lose themselves, their own souls, Whatever they do or achieve will be worthless. Power hardens the human heart. A hard-hearted person is incapable of love. It is by giving that we receive, And it is by serving that we grow in love.
