Best of luck to all our Exam Students as they continue their exams. A book is available in Mullagh Church. You can write the name of the student doing exams on it. The students will be remembered at masses during the exam time.

PRAYER FOR EXAM STUDENTS

Lord, I come before you in need.

Exams are approaching and I am worried.

Give me courage to face the coming weeks.

Concentrate my mind on my studies.

Help me to use my time well.

May I work hard, but also rest and relax a little.

During each exam, may what I have studied appear on the paper.

May I read each question carefully identify what is asked, and answer well.

When the results come, may I be satisfied that I did my best.

May whatever path I choose in life bring me happiness and give me opportunities to better the world.

Amen.

REFLECTION –

The person in misery does not need a look that judges and criticises, but a comforting presence.

Jesus looked at the ordinary people, and seeing how needy they were, he had compassion on them and began to minister to them.

Compassion means that I suffer with you;

I accept into my heart the misery in yours;

I become one with you in your pain.

I may not be able to relieve that pain,

but by understanding it and sharing it,

I make it possible for you to bear it.

Lord, give us warm and generous hearts so that we may be agents of your compassion to others.

MULLAGH SPORTS FIELD are happy to launch our iDonate page as we continue to part fund for our new inclusive playground. We feel this new amenity will add great value to our community in the years ahead. Please support if possible on www.idonate.ie/fundraiser/MullaghSportsField

A very Happy Fathers Day to all our fathers on this weekend. I love Brendan Kennellys poem:

No sooner downstairs after the night's rest

In the middle of the kitchen floor.

And as you danced

You whistled.

You made your own music

Always in tune with yourself.

Well, nearly always, anyway.

You're buried now

In Lislaughtin Abbey

And whenever I think of you

I go back beyond the old man

Mind and body broken

To find the unbroken man.

It is the moment before the dance begins,

Your lips are enjoying themselves

Whistling an air.

Whatever happens or cannot happen

In the time I have to spare

I see you dancing, father.

Best of Luck to the Mens Senior Clare Footballers on this weekend & Ladies Intermediate Clare Footballers this weekend!
