Safeguarding. In the Churches Safeguarding Policy ‘A Safe and welcoming Church’ June 2024 , Bishop Fintan Monahan pledges that the Diocese will safeguard children and young people from harm and to support them in their development as valued and integral members of the Catholic Church in Ireland. The Church’s ministry will be inclusive and will uphold their rights. Consistent with Gospel values, and with civil and criminal law, those who minister will do so with dignity and integrity, honouring their calling to ensure that children and young people are welcomed, cherished and protected, following the example set by Jesus.

Reflection

I believe in the God of life who loves me at each moment without any condition whatsoever and who wants to see me alive and well.

I believe in the God who always forgives me and opens to me a future full of life and hope.

I believe in the God who is with me every second of my life to help me, heal me, console me, strengthen me, suffer with me and be my best friend.

I believe in the God who knows only love and compassion: who is a ‘lover of life’ and who begs me to ‘choose life’. In this faith I find joy and peace in the present life and hope for the life to come.

Amen.
