Reflection

"God has created me to do Him some definite service. He has committed some work to me which He has not committed to another. I have my mission. I may never know it in this life, but I shall be told it in the next. I am a link in a chain, a bond of connection between persons.

He has not created me for naught. I shall do good; I shall do His work. I shall be an angel of peace, a preacher of truth in my own place, while not intending it if I do but keep His commandments.

Therefore, I will trust Him, whatever I am, I can never be thrown away. If I am in sickness, my sickness may serve Him, in perplexity, my perplexity may serve Him. If I am in sorrow, my sorrow may serve Him. He does nothing in vain. He knows what He is about. He may take away my friends. He may throw me among strangers. He may make me feel desolate, make my spirits sink, hide my future from me. Still, He knows what He is about."

— St John Henry Newman

Mission Sunday Collection is this weekend 17th & 18th October, you can use your envelope from your yearly supply or extra envelopes are in the church porches.

World Missions Ireland has adopted the following theme for this year's Mission Month: 'Together we can do more: Blessed are the peacemakers.' A new world order is emerging from the global pandemic.

We now live in a world that calls us to act in solidarity with our neighbours both near and far. Through World Mission Sunday, it is possible for you to reach out and participate in this mission.

In this time of uncertainty, Pope Francis asks us, 'to invite Jesus into the boats of our lives. To hand over our fears to him so that he can conquer them, like the disciples, we will experience that with Jesus on board there will be no shipwreck. Because this is God's strength turning to the good what happens to us, even the bad things. He brings serenity into our storms, because with God life never dies.'
