A PRAYER FOR UKRAINE

God of peace and justice,

We pray for the people of Ukraine today.

We pray for peace and the laying down of weapons.

We pray for all those who fear for tomorrow,

That your Spirit of comfort would draw near to them.

We pray for those with power over war or peace,

For wisdom, discernment and compassion to guide their decisions.

Above all, we pray for all your precious children, at risk and in fear. That you would hold and protect them.

We pray in the name of Jesus, the Prince of Peace.

Amen.

JUNIOR CERT, LEAVING CERT & LEAVING CERT APPLIED!

We wish the very best of luck to our students as they begin their exams. A prayer card and a candle is available for our students in all our churches. An exam book where you can write the name of your family member doing exams is available in Mullagh Church. You might like to write your family members name in the book and we will remember them in the morning masses.

PRAYER BEFORE THE BLESSED SACRAMENT

Outside the church the noisy traffic flows past

But I have left that world behind

And I am here before you, Lord.

I close my mind and open my heart.

Here I experience my true worth,

Which consists, not in my possessions or

achievements,

But in knowing that I am loved by you.

Reflection

Take, bless, break and give

In the Eucharist bread is taken, blessed, broken and given.

In life we are taken, blessed broken and given.

The priest takes the bread in his hands and blesses it
during the eucharistic prayer;

Then he breaks it and it is given to us as the body of Christ.

Through our birth and baptism we are taken into God's hands;

As the bread is taken, so too are we,

In life we are blessed by family, friends, love and joy;

As the bread is blessed, so too are we.

We are broken in failure, sin, pain and heartbreak;

As the bread is broken, so too are we.

In death we are given back to the mystery
from which we came;

As the bread is given, so too are we.

When we take, bless, break and give

bread to one another,

We believe the Lord to be especially present in our midst.

But we must learn to accept that in his memory

We will be taken, blessed, broken and given for the life of the world.

FATHERS DAY

A very happy Fathers Day on this weekend to all our fathers. I love Brendan Kennelly's poem "I see you dancing Father"

*No sooner downstairs after the night's rest
In the middle of the kitchen floor.*

And as you danced

You whistled.

You made your own music

Always in tune with yourself.

Well, nearly always, anyway.

You're buried now

In Lislaughtin Abbey

And whenever I think of you

I go back beyond the old man

Mind and body broken

To find the unbroken man.

It is the moment before the dance begins,

Your lips are enjoying themselves

Whistling an air.

Whatever happens or cannot happen

In the time I have to spare

I see you dancing, father.

We remember all Fathers on this weekend and we especially remember all our Fathers who have gone before us, may they rest in peace.

Best of Luck to The Clare Hurlers on this weekend V Wexford and the Clare Footballers next Saturday V Derry!
