To have or to be

The shop window is like a mirror; we look into it and see something which we want to possess or buy. Different things attract different people. We can almost see ourselves in some of the showpieces - buy something and we'll appear successful, buy something else and we may be popular, something else and we'll look stunning, something else and we'll be one of the in-group.

Mirrors of possessiveness, being caught by the attraction of what we might own and being looked up to for what we have.

Jesus' story today is about a man who stored it all up, and then found he had too much to bring with him, wherever the future might call him. He was rich in the sight of the world, and impoverished in the sight of God.

There's a transparency about us all when we are with God. All are equally loved in the eyes of God, not just for who each person is, not for where we live, or for who our friends are, or for a youthful body or expert mind.

Loved and valued for who we are, and how we want to love and care for others, and how we want to contribute to the world.

All are loved, and all can make some contribution to the betterment of the world, by how we love and give to others.

When we give in love we lose nothing. We gain and so we are richer in the sight of God.

Prayer for our new Bishop

*Eternal God, shepherd and guide, in Your mercy
You have given Your Church in our Diocese of Killaloe, Kieran, a shepherd after your own heart.
May he walk in Your ways, and with loving care watch over Your people. Make him a leader of vision and a teacher of Your truth, so that Your Church may be built up and Your name glorified; through Jesus Christ our Lord.*

Amen.

SYMPATHY: We offer our prayers, sympathy and support to the family, friends and relatives of Fr. James Meade C.S.Sp. formerly Moloskey & Kimmage Manor, brother of Margaret Donnellan, Finuremore. Lola McCarthy, Galbally Road, Tipperary & Clohaninchy, Quilty who was buried during the week.

ORDINATION OF BISHOP KIERAN O'REILLY ON 29 AUGUST 2010: 650 Invitations have been allocated to parishioners across the diocese for this joyous occasion. The most recent population figures supplied by the parishes to the Diocesan Office were used to allocate the invitations pro-rata to each parish. Our Parish has been allocated 8 invitations in the first allocation. We invite people who are interested in attending to submit their names to the Fr. Pat before Monday 2 August. In the event that we have more people interested that we have tickets allocated for a draw will take place in as transparent a fashion as possible.
