Annagh National School: Our Principal Mr King retired on last Friday after 31 years of extraordinary service to our school and to this community. Mr King created a wonderful welcoming environment in the school and created a great team of teachers with a great work ethic. Whenever you went to Annagh School things we done well. Mr King had great interest in football both ladies football and mens football and sowed the seeds for many County Final wins down through the years. He had a great interest in children who struggled with learning and fought tirelessly in the background to get the best services for them. Mr King, we thank you for your wonderful work and the seeds that you sowed with such love down through the years, may retirement in the words of John O'Donoghue the poet be a time of "Looking back with graciousness and thanks on all your great and quiet achievements"

Mr King Míle Buiochas from the community of Kilmurry Ibrickane.

P.S. Annagh NS Centenary video which was made in 1999 is up on the Annagh N.S. website. www.annaghns.com/

Mullagh N.S. Coffee Morning: Many thanks to all who supported our recent Coffee Morning. Not only was it a very successful fundraiser, but also a wonderful social event. It was great to see so many of our school community -both families and neighbours - enjoying catching up with each other over a cuppa and a sweet treat. An occasion that could very well become a permanent date on our school calendar.

SYMPATHY: Sympathy to our local Church of Ireland Priest Vicky Lynch on the death of her husband Stephen. Coore East, may he Rest in Peace.

FREE TALK ON BEREAVEMENT: DATE:TUE 29th APRIL 2025 TIME: 7.00—8.30 PM VENUE: MILFORD CARE CENTRE CASTLETROY LIMERICK. Following the death of someone close, we may experience strong and conflicting emotions. Grief can be powerful and feel overwhelming. The death of a person can send ripples throughout the community. Bereavement not only affects the family, but also friends, work colleagues, teachers and neighbours. Who is this intended for? The evenings are designed to give general information on grief and bereavement to bereaved people, their family and friends. Members of the Bereavement Service will be present to answer specific questions, however counselling is not available on the evening. What happens? Short talk by staff members about the different experiences of Grief. Information on Support Services available. Question time. For more information please contact the Social Work Department at 061 485800 or socialwork@milfordcc.ie

WEST CLARE CANCER CENTRE would like to thank all those that participated and helped in any way in our 27th Mini Marathon. With your unwavering support this event brought in a huge €13,453.00 Thank you!!

Prayer for Holy Week by Christine Sine

God, as we journey through Holy Week toward the cross,
May we remember the wonder of who you are.

Beyond sin, your love is inexhaustible,
Beyond brokenness, your forgiveness is incomprehensible,

Beyond betrayal, your grace is poured out eternally,

Beyond death your life is unimaginable.

Beyond human understanding,

your ways are always higher than ours.

Reflection –

Where is the Lord? Gone away? His work finished?
How are his followers? Separating? Their hopes finished?
He is with God. He is raised to God, he lives now in the place where he was before time began: with the Father. He lives with God and he is found in his people; to be found among people is to be found with God. Where do we find the one who is with God? In Galilee, on the road to Emmaus, at the seaside. Among people, Lord, help me to notice you, follow you, enjoy you, embrace you, in your people. Risen Lord, raise your people!

Best of luck to the Clare Footballers V Tipperary on Saturday and to the Clare Hurlers V Cork on Sunday!
