Anniversary Masses

As we are restricted to numbers in our Churches at this time we are unfortunately unable to do anniversary masses for people who have died outside the Parish for the moment, as restrictions are lifted further we will be able resume again.
We apologise for any inconvenience caused.

Return to Public Masses

We are concerned for the safety of everybody so at a recent Pastoral Council meeting we decided on the following safety measures:

- Hand sanitisers are available at each church.
- We ask you to avail of these as you enter the Church.
- If you wish you may stay in your car and listen to mass on outside speaker and we will bring you Holy Communion.
- We ask you to adhere to social distancing by being aware of the signs on the floor.
- Families are welcome to sit together, two people per seat from different households (seated on either side of the seat).
Stewards will guide you to your place.
- Eucharistic Ministers will wear face masks and sanitise hands before giving out Holy Communion.
- Speakers are installed outside so if anybody wants to stay outside they are welcome to do that too.
- Because of Covid 19 we won't be passing around the baskets for our collection as usual. Baskets will be placed at each church door so that you can place your contributions in them.
- We ask people to receive Holy Communion on the hand if at all possible. If there are people seated in the gallery please stay there. A Eucharistic Minister will come up to you.
- We will leave the Church in stages beginning with the right hand side aisle continuing with the left hand side aisle and followed by the main aisle.

Act of Spiritual Communion

Act of Spiritual Communion My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love you above all things, And I desire to receive you into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally, Come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace you as if you were already there and unite myself wholly to you. Never permit me to be separated from you. Amen

SYMPATHY: We remember in our prayer Pyllys Sexton wife of the late James Sexton, Moyglass who died in the UK. Rest in Peace Pyllys.

QUILTY GRAVEYARD: We will shortly need graves in the new graveyard so we need to begin developing it. Anybody who can help with a machine or time or expertise would be welcome, contact Pat Murray 087 2287010 or Fr. Donagh 087 2322140 if you can give some help. We may organise a meitheal day in the near future to progress things on.

PARISH FINANCES: At the Parish Finance meeting on Wednesday night it was noted that both the Parish and Priests account are low at the moment. We thank you for your wonderful generosity and appeal for your support in these difficult times. You may donate through the envelope system or through the donate button on Parish Website www.kibparish.ie

SEAFIELD TIDY TOWNS COMMITTEE: We are setting up a Seafield Tidy Towns Committee, if you would like to get involved in making much needed improvements to Seafield Beach and the surrounding area you are welcome to get involved. This area has been neglected for many years and action is needed now in order to protect our beautiful beach and coastline. If you would like to contribute in any way please contact seafieldditytowns@gmail.com or phone 087-7994919 or 086-3165877.

VACANCIES ON A CE SCHEME MULLAGH: Environmental Workers, Maintenance Workers and Sportsfield Caretaker.

payment for 12 months to qualify. Call INTRO 065 6869296 to check eligibility or contact Nuala 087 2079564 for more info.

AOIBHEANN MURPHY ACADEMY OF IRISH DANCING has started back in Mullagh Hall. Classes are catered for boys and girls aged 3 and up. All classes will be capped to adhere to guidelines. Booking is essential. New beginners welcome. For more information contact Aoibheann on 0860822140 or facebook: Aoibheann Murphy Academy.

MULLAGH SPORTSFIELD would like to thank everyone who has and still are contributing to the 'Honesty Box'. This money goes toward the cost of light and maintenance of the field. We appreciate your support of Mullagh Sportsfield.

Reflection:

Faith Tested

"My faith is tested many times every day, and more times than I'd like to confess,
I'm unable to keep the banner of faith aloft.
If a promise is not kept, or if a secret is betrayed, or if I experience long lasting pain,
I begin to doubt God and God's love,
I fall into the chasm of disbelief and I cry out in despair,
But then the Spirit lifts me up again, and once more I am secured in faith.
I don't know how that happens Save when I cry out earnestly I am answered immediately and am returned to faithfulness.
I am once again filled with the Spirit and firmly planted on solid ground."

We wish all our Fathers a very HAPPY FATHERS DAY on this weekend. We remember Fathers who have gone on before us marked with the Sign of Faith
I love Brendan Kennelly's poem about his dad:

I see you dancing, Father
No sooner downstairs after the night's rest
In the middle of the kitchen floor.
And as you danced
You whistled.
You made your own music
Always in tune with yourself.
Well, nearly always, anyway.
You're buried now
In Lislaughtin Abbey
And whenever I think of you I go back beyond the old man
Mind and body broken
To find the unbroken man.
It is the moment before the dance begins,
Your lips are enjoying themselves
Whistling an air.
Whatever happens or cannot happen
In the time I have to spare
I see you dancing, father.
