Dear Parishioners

I hope that you and all your families and loved ones continue to stay safe and well. As the current crisis continues to be part of our community and church life, new guidance is becoming available to us daily.

It has now become the common practice in many Dioceses that there would be a strong encouragement for people who attend Mass or other Liturgies in churches to wear face masks.

The wearing of masks has now become such a feature of all our lives in shops, post offices and every public place that people are becoming used to them. So it is suggested that we encourage people to bring masks or face shields with them to church and to wear them. It is a protection for themselves and for those they meet.

Reflection

To the children of the future By Méabh Ní Uallachain

You do not know

You can never imagine

You will never realize

What a pandemic means to the human heart...

What Covid 19 can do to the human soul...

What cocooning can do to human freedom...

In silence, but with speed, it shattered all our normalities,

Bringing destruction and death in its path,

Tearing at our quiet places of prayer and goodness,

It burst into our spaces of happiness and peace,

With destruction, devastation and tears.

Across the decades and centuries to come

It will be whispered about.

Stories told from one generation to another,

How catastrophic the attack, that reduced us to fear.

How endless the lines of the sick and the grieving...

How frequent the lists of the lost and the dead,

With thousands walking in the gravitas of sorrow.

The broken hearts of children, of parents and of grandparents,

With distances widening between them.

Nights when we could not sleep,

And lost our hearts whole sense of the beloved.

Days when we could not see, Could not hear,

Could not find

The beloved.

But with these weeks and months of horror

Came the amazing singing of the sweetest morning chorus...

Came an openness to the humanity of others...

But with these weeks and months of horror

Came the amazing singing of the sweetest morning chorus...

Came an openness to the humanity of others...

Came a deeper understanding of the beauty in Nature...

Came a gentle desire to make old and new contacts with family and friends,

Came the hope to live differently

and care for the earth,

Came the urge to declutter,

keeping what is worth keeping,

Came a longing to slow down, reflect and love gently.

Came a new appreciation of gratitude, and of what we have.

So, Pandemic, what was your purpose here?

Why did you come among us?

To teach us something?

Go now and never return...

I think we may have learnt that something...
