CHANGES TO TEXTS WITHIN THE INTRODUCTORY RITES OF THE MASS.

The Lord be with you. And with your spirit.

This response is one of the very obvious changes as we use the new edition of the Missal. It is the literal translation of what we find in the Latin text "et cum spiritu tuo". This translation is already found in other languages, for example, German, Italian, French and Spanish. The source for this dialogue between priest and people is very much Scripture. In four letters, St. Paul uses the following greetings: Galatians 6:18 - May the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit; Philippians 4:23-The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit; 2 Timothy 4:22-The Lord be with your spirit; Philemon 25 - The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. Similar greetings can be found in the Old Testament. What does "your spirit" mean? It is not a reference to the Holy Spirit though it is spoken by people who live according to that Spirit. For St. Paul the spirit is our spiritual part that is closest to God. "And with your spirit" is about having the spirit or mind of Christ as your guiding light, as what guides us through the day - a Christian Spirit. While it will sound unfamiliar to us this greeting and response captures our biblical roots. It is a recognition of the spirit that is among us as Christians, a spirit that we must live and, in greeting one another, it proclaims the presence of Christ among us. This greeting occurs elsewhere in the Mass and each time is accompanied by the response "And with your spirit".

Prepared by the National Centre for Liturgy.
