Week of Prayer for Christian Unity

January 18 to 25th January 2018

Theme: "Your right hand, O Lord, glorious in power" (Exodus 15:6)

Today Caribbean Christians of many traditions see the hand of God active in the ending of enslavement. It is a uniting experience of the saving action of God that brings freedom. For this reason the song of Moses and Miriam (Ex 15:1-21) was chosen as the motif of the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity 2018. It is a song of triumph over oppression that unites. However, contemporary challenges again threaten to enslave and threaten again the dignity of the human person created in the image and likeness of God. Exodus 15 allows to see how the road to unity often passes through communal experience of suffering. Although liberation/salvation is an initiative taken by God, God engages human persons in the realisation of his purpose and plan for the redemption of his people. Christians, through baptism share in God's ministry of reconciliation, but our own division hamper our witness and mission to the world in need of God's healing.

North American Indian Prayer on Remembrance

Always remember to forget, The things that made you sad,
 But never forget to remember,
 The things that made you glad.

Always remember to forget, The people that proved untrue.
 But never forget to remember,
 Those that have stuck by you.

Always remember to forget, the troubles that passed away.
 But never forget to remember.
 The blessings that come each day
