Reflection

Today we are in danger of being drowned in bad news. Jesus began his ministry by announcing good news. What was this good news?

That kingdom stands for the fulfilment of the promises, the fullness of God's blessings, in short, the new order of things. Forgiveness is available. Recovery is possible.

God's love is unconditional and is available to us in Christ.

All we have to do is recognise our need, and seek his help with humility and sincerity. Unless we repent we can't hear the good news.

Joint statement of Bishop Fintan and Bishop Burrows

Over the past number of days and weeks it has been disturbing and sad to see some of the strong protests against the arrival of people seeking emergency accommodation in Roscrea which is in the Diocese of Killaloe and also other venues and locations of the country.

The situation in Roscrea and in other places have many local complexities with some genuine concerns both regarding resources for the new residents and for the amenities and services in the areas in question. However we would appeal for calm and for a peaceful approach to the issues involved.

Our joint appeal is for all of us to keep in mind the bigger picture and the emergency situation that presents itself.

Many of the people coming to our shores are coming from very disturbing situations are in dire need of shelter.

They deserve whatever level of help can possibly be offered and provided even if it involves some sacrifice or inconvenience going the extra mile so to speak.
