HARVEST THANKSGIVING MASS

This summer and autumn have given us a great crop of silage and hay, food for the animals, vegetables, fresh from the sea and ideal conditions for cutting and saving the turf. We are very blessed especially when compared to parts of the world where there is famine, drought, conflict and hunger. This year Mass of Thanksgiving for the Harvest Mass will take place in Quilty on Saturday 4th October, the Feast of St. Francis at 7pm. A short meeting to help prepare the liturgy will take place on Tuesday 23rd September in Quilty Church at 8pm. All are welcome to be involved.

Next year Coore Church Celebrates 150 years since it was dedicated in 1805. A short 'buzz' of 5 / 10 minutes will take place after 9.30am on Sunday 5th October to arrange a meeting / venue to begin to look at what can be done to mark the occasion.

We acknowledge with thanks recent generous donation for Coore Church from Patrick & Mary Breen in memory of their son Patrick Breen.

We also thank Mary Talty RIP late of Clounlaheen & New York for the recent generous donation towards Coore Church.

We again thank Jimmy & Kathleen Morris from the Killaloe Diocesan Eucharistic Adoration committee for speaking at Masses last weekend. The response to their appeal was excellent. 85 people committed themselves to spending an hour in prayer each Wednesday. This means there are more than enough people to have continuous prayer on Wednesday from 10am to 10pm in the Sacristy of Mullagh Church. Adoration will begin on Wednesday 18th October at 10am Feast of St Therese Liseaux, the 'Little Flower'. At 7pm that evening a Mass of Commissioning will take place in Mullagh Church. All who volunteered are invited to be in attendance to receive God's Blessing for your generosity with your time. If you were away, or unsure of what is involved or would like to join the prayer at any stage, you are welcome. If you would like to commit to an hour, cards are available in the Parish Office.
