Reflection - Working With love

All work is empty save when done with love.

And what is it to work with love?

It is to weave the cloth with threads
drawn from your heart,

Even as if your beloved were to wear that cloth.

It is to build a house with affection,

Even as if your beloved were to dwell in that house.

If you cannot work with love but only with distaste,

It is better that you should leave your work,

And sit at the gate of the temple

And take alms from those who work with joy.

For if you bake bread with indifference,

You bake a bitter bread that feeds but half of man's hunger.

And if you grudge the crushing of the grapes,

Your grudge distils a poison in the wine.

Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love you above all things,
And I desire to receive you into my soul.
Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally,
Come at least spiritually into my heart.
I embrace you as if you were already there
And unite myself wholly to you.
Never permit me to be separated from you. Amen

NEW MINISTRIES

At Baptism each of us were called and sent to each other in community.

We are called everyday too Minister to each other
("As the Father sent me so I am sending you")

At present in the Diocese 13 people are training for the Ministry of Pastoral Care. Their focus will be on reaching out to those who are vulnerable in our Parishes ie, the sick, the bereaved and those on the margins.

Rita O'Dwyer is training for the Ministry of Pastoral care from our Cluster. Rita has done the First Friday call many times before the lockdown and is engaged in a number of Pastoral initiatives in our cluster.

There are also 12 other people training for the Ministry of Catechist in the Diocese. It is very likely that preparation for the Sacraments will be taken out of the schools and so catechists will prepare the children for Baptism, First Communion and confirmation in the future.

The future of the faith in Ireland will depend on people within our communities handing on the wonderful gift of Faith.

I salute hugely those who have given their time to prepare for these two valuable Ministries and I ask you to support them and welcome them too, the future of faith in our parishes depends on their generosity. Soon they will come to the end of their course and will be sent into our communities. The very future of Faith will depend on their good work.

BISHOP FINTAN CALLS FOR REFLECTION ON WHERE WE GO INTO THE FUTURE AS A DIOCESE.

In his Easter letter Bishop Fintan reflects that the Church in the Diocese of Killaloe will be very different post Covid.

"With the declining number of people that are living in rural areas, rural population- Its a two tier system in many ways - You just wonder how small churches will be able to be sustained in to the future.

Certainly with the decline of the number of Priests on top of that and then the decline then further of people attending Mass there is going to be a completely different reality in the short term when we get back so I am trying to alert people to begin to start thinking together how will we sustain small communities into the future. We need to develop lay leadership and ministry otherwise our rural communities will be devastated. In order to address this situation we encourage the gifts and talents of local men and women and train them for the future, this is a challenge for us now.

REFLECTION

God has created me to do Him some definite service. He has committed some work to me which He has not committed to another. I have my mission. I may never know it in this life, but I shall be told it in the next. I am a link in a chain, a bond of connection between persons. He has not created me for naught. I shall do good; I shall do His work. I shall be an angel of peace, a preacher of truth in my own place, while not intending it if I do but keep His commandments. Therefore, I will trust Him, whatever I am, I can never be thrown away. If I am in sickness, my sickness may serve Him, in perplexity, my perplexity may serve Him. If I am in sorrow, my sorrow may serve Him. He does nothing in vain. He knows what He is about. He may take away my friends. He may throw me among strangers. He may make me feel desolate, make my spirits sink, hide my future from me. Still, He knows what He is about.
