Killaloe Diocese

In these times of Government lockdown and restrictions on attendances at public masses, many people who are unable to attend church services are interested in contributing to the support of their parish or their priests.

Sincere thanks to all our parishioners who have contributed during this time. It is now possible to make a contribution by credit or debit card directly to your parish using the Diocesan Website - www.killaloediocese.ie. The full contribution as received by the Diocesan website will be fully paid to your parish.

Simply go to the Diocesan Website and click on the red "Donate to your Parish" button on the top of the page. You will be invited to select your parish and the parish fund you wish to contribute to. Your support is greatly appreciated.

REFLECTION

We invite you into the experience of returning home to God this Christmas, to allow the Word to become flesh again to your life, to make you home in him.

God of welcome and acceptance,
Call me home from the four winds of distraction
Call me home to my own heart.
Welcome me into your peace.

Call me from a far country
Call me home from darkness and sin
Welcome me into your forgiveness.
Call me home from my pace of exile.
Call me home from the Christmas rush
Help me to make my home with you.
Call me home to my faith and my church
Call me home to Bethlehem, to rebirth

Help me to see divinity in a stable.
Give me a heart for the homeless, for the refugee.
Give me a prayer of healing for homes where there is violence, grief or separation.
Give me a heart of love for those who are afraid to come home. Help us all turn our houses into homes, into places of welcome and acceptance for God and one another.
Amen.

LOOKING FOR A CHILDMINDER FOR 1 BABY. Flexible weeks, it would be Monday/Tuesday one week and Weds/Thurs/Fri another week. Preferably Mullagh/Coore/Quilty/Miltown area.
Please contact 0851762005.

RECONCILIATION PRAYER - SERENITY PRAYER

Lord, grant me the serenity to accept things that I cannot change,
the courage to change the things that I can and the wisdom to know the difference. Living one day at a time;
Enjoying one moment at a time;
Accepting hardships as the pathway to peace.
Taking, as Christ did, this sinful world as it is, Not as I would have it, Trusting that he will make all things right. If I surrender to his will;
So that I may be reasonably happy in this life and supremely happy with him forever in the next.
Amen.

Fr. Donagh O'Meara

As we begin a New Year I love Brendan Kennedys wonderful poem "Begin". It talks about always being able to begin again.

"Begin"

Begin again to the summoning birds
to the sight of the light at the window, begin to the roar of morning traffic
all along Pembroke Road.
Every beginning is a promise
born in light and dying in dark determination and exaltation of springtime flowering the way to work.
Begin to the pageant of queuing girls
the arrogant loneliness of swans in the canal bridges linking the past and future
old friends passing though with us still.
Begin to the loneliness that cannot end
since it perhaps is what makes us begin,
begin to wonder at unknown faces
at crying birds in the sudden rain at branches stark in the willing sunlight
at seagulls foraging for bread
at couples sharing a sunny secret alone together while making good.
Though we live in a world that dreams of ending that always seems about to give in something that will not acknowledge conclusion insists that we forever begin.
