We begin our Diocesan Process of Reflecting, Listening and Conversing together about the issues and challenges we face as Church in this society, and how best we can move into the future. It is appropriate that we begin on the first Sunday of Advent which is also the beginning of a new Liturgical Year. The Advent Readings encourage us to walk in hope as a Christian People, to find the fragile new shoots of growth, and to recognise that God is doing new things among us, even in the midst of desolation and darkness. It is in this spirit, and with advent hearts that we set out together, fifty eight parishes across our diocese, walking together in hope.

Our local representative is Michael King, Mullagh.
