The Departures Lounge

I wait in the lounge of departure, I know not the time of my flight, I hope it's way off in the future, but it could be I'm flying tonight.

The flight I await goes to Heaven, I know it's lovely up there, for I've read their fine brochure, the Bible, and I speak to them oft in my prayer.

It costs very little to go there, you take nothing with you at all, you pay by the way you behave every day, and you wait for St. Peter to call.

As I wait for the start of my journey, there's so many things I can see, like someone in need of a word or a deed, so I do what's expected of me.

So I wait in the lounge of departure, never too sure when to fly, but I hope when I do, there's a chance I meet you, we can all pay the fare if we try!
