Prayer for a Pandemic

May we, who are merely inconvenienced, remember those whose lives are at stake.

May we, who have no risk factors, remember those most vulnerable.

May we, who have the luxury of working from home, remember those who must choose between preserving their health or making their rent.

May we, who have flexibility to care for our children when their school close, remember those who have no options.

May we, who have to cancel our trips, remember those who have no safe place to go.

May we, who are losing our margin money in the tumult of the economic market remember those who have no margin at all.

May we, who settle in to a quarantine at home, remember those who have no home at all.

As fear grips out country, let us choose faith hope and love during this time when we physically wrap our arms around each other, let us find ways to be the loving embrace of God to our neighbours.

Amen.

Reflection

This is the time to be slow

Lie low to the wall

Until the bitter weather passes.

Try, as best you can, not to let

The wire brush of doubt

Scrape from your heart

All sense of yourself

And your hesitant light.

If you remain generous,

Time will come good;

And you will find your feet

Again on fresh pastures of promise,

Where the air will be kind

And blushed with beginning.

John O'Donohue

Covid 19

We are living in strange times. Ireland at its core is a place based on community and community connection. The handshake, the chat / conversation are part of who we are. All of these things have been taken from us in this difficult time. It is really important for us to maintain social distance but also to find other ways to connect through the phone, through social media.

We can only get through this together. In a famous speech in Northern Ireland a few years ago Bill Clinton said “there is no them there is only us”. Let us look out for each other at this particularly difficult time. Let us not think of just washing our OWN hands but to remember the call of Jesus at the last supper to wash the feet of all who may need or support of help at this time.

“There is no them there is only us now”
