

HOLY SOULS— We remember them in November. This month we especially remember all our faithful departed, our loved ones who have gone before us. There are many ways we remember them at masses by visiting graves and in our remembrance tree in Mullagh Church.

In the yearly supply of envelopes a list page is included which can be used to write down names to be included in the Masses. Envelopes are also available in the Churches and names can be dropped in during the month.
Eternal rest grant onto them O Lord.

CLUSTER CHANGES

Recently Fr. Sean Murphy advised that he would be retiring as Parish Priest of Miltown effective November 1st. We wish him well on his retirement and good health. Bishop Fintan Monahan has asked Fr. Anthony McMahon & Fr. Pat Larkin to administer Miltown Parish and to assist in masses, funerals, weddings, baptisms and school work. Thankfully, Fr. Sean & Canon Seamus Mullin will continue to say daily and weekend masses. Initially weekend masses in Kilmurry Ibrickane Parish will continue to be at the same times. Weekday Masses will be advised in the newsletter each weekend.

There will be a rotation of Priests saying the weekend Masses, with Priests from Miltown Malbay & Kilmaley coming here and Fr. Anthony will be going out likewise.

Further changes to times of Baptisms will be advised in due course. It will be necessary to move First Anniversary Masses to weekend mass times on weekends when group anniversaries are not taking place. First anniversaries already booked will be unchanged.

THE WEST CLARE CANCER GROUP'S FIFTH ANNUAL POKER CLASSIC will take place at the Westbridge Bar, Miltown Malbay, on Sunday 5th November at 7pm.
