ITMA and OIÐHREACHT AN CHLÁIR: Miltown Malbay man Liam O'Brien has just been appointed by ITMA to the new position of Digital Access and Development Officer for Co. Clare, with the support of the Michael Guinee Charitable Foundation. Based in Áras OaC, Liam will facilitate the digitisation, cataloguing and increase in access to the more than 10,000
Clare-related materials currently housed in ITMA's extensive collection in Dublin, as well as the vast archive of Oidhreacht an Chláir. As a result, this three-year position will provide the people of Clare with unprecedented access to their musical heritage - inspiring cultural engagement, contributing to the social, economic and cultural sustainability of the county, and making Clare a world leader when it comes to digital access to its musical heritage.
Comhghairdeachas le Liam.

REFLECTION

ALL SAINTS I know a lot of saints, I do!

So let me mention just a few:

I know someone who runs a team

And teaches kids to play and dream,

Who stands in cold and wind and rain

On days they play and nights they train;

Someone who's there when we are sad,

The best and gentlest friend we've had,

Someone who says, 'Just do your best',

When I am scared to take a test;

A friend who takes the time to show

How things were done so long ago;

A teacher who just always knows

Where that comma always goes;

And others who are kind and good,

Who try to act as Jesus would,

Who show God's love in all they do.

I know a lot of saints, don't you?
