'LISTEN TO ME, ALL OF YOU.' MARK 7:21

Today's Gospel invites all of us to listen.

Listen, all new junior infants as your early days in school unfold a new horizon of hearing.

Listen, all 'i-pod' reliant youngsters as your parents try to get a word in edgeways.

Listen, all 'hypocrites' who pay lip-service to worthless worship, Jesus 'target hits' a nerve of our shallow religiosity. (Today's Gospel)

Listen, all who promote a life of mediocrity. You, who rob us of our values and dignity.

Listen, all who are trapped by our throwaway consumerist world.

Listen, believe that God created our world. Reflect your conviction by reverence, thanksgiving and wonder.

Listen, Worship the creator of everything 'visible and invisible.' Refuse to despise anyone or anything of God as despicable.

Listen. Do not be seduced by the pretence of today's idolatry. Nail that lie, which only leads to enslavement.

Listen. Remember Wordsworth's lines: 'Oh, listen for the vale profound is overflowing with the sound...'

Listen. The mystery sound of God's voice visits us, like a new dawn, from on high. Shh, shh, shh...shh...hush.. Elect silence as a central part of prayer in our churches. LISTEN.
