OLD KILFARBOY SOCIETY: Come and join us in Kilrush on Sunday 14 July for a tour of the historic town. We will meet at Brew's car park and make our way to the old Protestant Church now the Teach Cheoil and one of the oldest sites in the area. We will then follow in the footsteps of John Ormsby Vandaleur and as he developed the town in the early eighteenth century, taking in Moore Street, the Square and Kilrush Town Hall before strolling down Frances Street with its fine houses and famous, some would say infamous, Mars Cinema and Ballroom. We will make our way to the picturesque Marina and look out at the Shannon Estuary which played such an important role in the economy of the town. From there we will make our way to Merchant's Quay also known as Pauper's Quay and learn about the demise of the town in the late eighteenth century and its revival with the coming of the railway. We will make our way to the site of Kilrush Union Workhouse and later County Clare Mother and Baby Home before making our way to St Senan's Church to view the beautiful altar and impressive Harry Clarke stained glass windows. All the while you will hear the tales of Kilrush old and new and learn about the characters who made it such a memorable place to live".

CLARE HAVEN SERVICES, ENNIS will hold Church Gate Collections in Mullagh/Coore/Quilty on the weekend of July 6th/7th. Clare Haven provide support and refuge to women and children who are victims of domestic abuse. Your support is greatly appreciated.
