I am the light of the world, says the Lord. Anyone who follows me will have the light of life.

Our life with God is a journey, sometimes uphill, other times level, through light and shadow, to the fullness of God’s eternal joy.

It is a journey, sometimes gentle, sometimes strenuous, through doubt and faith, to the fullness of God’s eternal life.

It is a journey, sometimes solitary, other times accompanied, through isolation and love, to the fullness of God’s eternal friendship.

It is a journey, sometimes sad, sometimes joyful, through sorrows and happiness, to the fullness of God’s eternal joy.

I am the light of the world, says the Lord. Anyone who follows me will have the light of life.

WORLD MISSIONS IRELAND: On behalf of the Society of the Propagation of the Faith we Thank You for your support on Mission Sunday. In 2010, the Mission Sunday Collection in Killaloe Diocese amounted to €78,516. Thank you for your great generosity despite very difficult financial times. Together in Mission was the theme for Mission Month 2010. You show your solidarity with missionaries and the communities they serve through your generosity and prayers, especially on Mission Sunday. And, all those you help throughout the world are deeply grateful.

TROCAIRE: On this fourth Sunday in Lent we think of vulnerable mothers overseas who are raising their children against the odds. The inequalities that women and girls face all over the developing world condemn them to a future of poverty. By supporting Trocaire’s Lenten campaign you can help them look forward to a better future. For more information on the campaign visit www.trocaire.org/lent or call 1850 408 408.

HELP US TO FIND THE OLDEST WORKING PEOPLE IN EVERY COUNTY IN IRELAND: Friends of the Elderly in association with TV3 are starting a nationwide competition to find the oldest working man and woman in every county in Ireland They want to highlight the benefits of having an older person in the work force. Older people have a lot to offer, their experience, their work ethic and the respect they get from their fellow workers enhances the working environment. They hope these awards will give older people in the work force the recognition they deserve. Six finalists will feature on Ireland AM on the weeks of April 11, 18 and 25. The winners will then be announced on Midweek on Wednesday 4th May at the start of Bealtaine Festival Month, which is Ireland’s annual month of celebration of creativity in old age. Every older person that is nominated will receive a Certificate of Merit and the overall winning male and female worker will receive an all expenses paid weekend break at Kelly’s Resort Hotel & Spa, Rosslare, Co. Wexford. Older people who are nominated must work at least 20 hours a week. So if you think you know any elderly people who are still working in your county, post or e mail your nomination with a short description of their average working week and your contact details to :- Dermot Kirwan, Ireland’s Oldest Working People Awards, Friends of the Elderly, 25 Bolton Street, Dublin 1. Email: dkirwan@friendsoftheelderly.ie or telephone 01 8731855.
