The Old Kilfarboy Society is pleased to announce a talk by Paul O'Brien on 'Kilrush and County Clare recruiting committees during the First World War'. This talk is based on the Glynn family papers, and includes an examination of diaries, government propaganda and letters penned by Kilrush men from the Front. As part of the Glynn collection relates to the Glynn family's role as recruiters for the British Army during the First World War, Paul's illustrated talk will examine that role and focus on some of the West Clare enlistees in the army. The role of Fr. Hannon, Parish Priest of Miltown Malbay, is also examined. From Kilrush, Paul O'Brien recently completed his doctoral thesis at Mary Immaculate College, University of Limerick.

When the song of the angels is stilled, When the star in the sky is gone, When the kings and princes are gone home, When the shepherds are back with their flocks, The work of Charismas begins, To rebuild the nations To bring peace among peoples To make music in the heart.

Year of Mercy New Year's Resolution ideas...

We are now in a special year of Holy Year of Mercy as instituted by Pope Francis. This can be a hard concept to understand or to put into practice. We all learned the Corporal Works of Mercy and this might be a key to living a merciful way of life this year as a New Year's Resolution to try and do at least one of the following or support or join charities or groups who provide these services.

Corporal Works of Mercy

- To feed the hungry
- To give drink to the thirsty
- To clothe the naked
- To shelter the homeless
- To comfort the sick
- To visit the imprisoned.
- To bury the dead.

May you meet mercy each day;
In the light of your own heart,
At the hands of your loved ones,
in the eyes of the stranger and the needy.
And if by chance you do not at first meet it.
Then search your heart for it,
Listen patiently for word of it
and it will tap you on the shoulder,
A quiet surprise, a small gesture,
The tender look given and received
In the encounters of your day.

Blessing of Newly Baptised

We are delighted to welcome back many of those who were baptised in 2015. We hope to give them a little blessing at the 11 am Mass in Mullagh this weekend. We encourage them all along their way of life. We had 38 Baptisms in our parish this year, 6 in Coore Church, 11 in Mullagh and 21 in Quilty. There was one adult Baptism which took place at the Easter Vigil. We give thanks to the Lord for blessing our parish and community with so many new members.

PARISH ENVELOPES FOR 2016

Parish envelopes are now available. We thank you for taking a box of parish envelopes for collections for 2016. We really appreciate all your support to the different collections throughout the year. Last year the Parish made a claim under the Revenue Charity Tax back scheme which was very successful returning €8,500. This is only possible for verifiable donations through the parish envelope donation system; in case the parish is ever audited. We would especially encourage parishioners who support the basket collections to use the envelope system. This is a great system under our Tax code the only place where people have a say in how their taxes are spent. It is not intrusive just the filling of a form and we do not become privy to the tax circumstances of any individual. If you are not already on the list for envelopes and would like to please contact the parish office and we will arrange a supply of envelopes for you. Likewise if you received envelopes and prefer not to please let us know.

Feast of the Epiphany of Our Lord

January 6th, 2016

Masses

Quilty Tuesday 5th 7.00pm
Coore Wednesday 6th 9.30am
Mullagh Wednesday 6th 11am

Eucharistic Adoration begins after 11am Mass.

Epiphany commemorates the revelation to the Magi of Jesus as the son of God. From the middle ages until the mid nineteenth century, Twelfth Night was more popular than Christmas Day. For many Eastern Orthodox Churches it is the most important day of the Christmas season. In Ireland it is marked as Little Christmas or Oíche Nollaig na mBan or ladies Christmas.

Mary has given birth—her Son, the Messiah is amongst us. The old order has passed and the new has begun. In the Son, the lost find their way home; the broken hearted are consoled; the confused will find a guide; the lonely find a friend.
