Ash Wednesday

Wednesday next is Ash Wednesday the beginning of Lent.
Mass at 8pm on Wednesday evening in Mullagh Church with the distribution of ashes.

Trócaire Lenten Campaign

The Trócaire Lenten Campaign begins on Wednesday next.
This year it focuses on the life of three children in three different countries in the Third World. It reflects on the effects of war and dispossession of children from their homes. We have a responsibility as Christians to reach out to children in the third world this lent. Please consider taking a Trócaire box and putting it in a prominent place in the house, in that way we can make a huge difference this Lent. Trócaire boxes are available at the back of all the churches.

Community Led Liturgy

A word of thanks to all who made the Community Led Liturgy such a wonderful success on last weekend. We need to prepare for the future, sincere thanks to all.

If my parish no longer has a resident priest, does this mean that when there are fewer priests we will not have Mass on Sundays?

All of this is a new situation for us as a Diocese and there will be many things to be worked out as we go along. For now, Community Led Liturgy will take place in circumstances when a priest is unavailable for any one of a number of reasons, sickness, or holidays for example. But as the number of priests decline, Community Led Liturgy will become more part of the life of our Christian Communities. Pastoral Areas will need to work together, sharing resources to ensure that the Eucharist is celebrated regularly in each Church community.

What is the Diocese putting in place to help?

The Diocese is offering training for those who will lead and take part in the different ministries during a Lay Led Liturgy.
Diocesan Guidelines have been drawn up for this kind of liturgical celebration and Resources are available to help local Christian Communities. Each Community is asked to nominate teams of people for training. These will be people who are accepted in the local community, people who are pastorally sensitive and who understand this as a role of service in response to their baptismal calling.

Lenten Talks: For the season of Lent we will have three talks.
Lent is a time when we try to do something new. We warmly invite you to these talks, they are free and an opportunity to reflect a little deeper:

Tuesday 19th March at 7.30pm - "Christian Mindfulness"
- Martina Lehane Sheehy

Wednesday 27th March at 7.30pm - "My battles with gambling"
Oisín McConville Former Armagh Footballer

Tuesday 2nd April at 7.30pm - Dan O'Connell from Mary Immaculate Limerick will speak on "The God of Love"

"Thinking about God in a new way".

All talks will be in the Bellbridge House Hotel.
