Vocations Sunday

We need to imagine things before we can reach them, We need to imagine the future before we truly inhabit it. Covid 19 has taught us that the old system is dying, the vast majority of the Priests in Killaloe Diocese are cocooning. The Spirit is pointing us to something new but we will need imagination and courage to go there. Not to keep going back or thinking that we can go back to what was there. Before each of us have been called at baptism, called and gifted to become involved in our community, throughout this crisis we see so many people “ministering” to each other, caring, giving and reaching out. We need to discover our giftedness to become involved in our community and to enable others to also become involved. In the Diocese of Killaloe we are lucky that 25 people are presently being prepared for ministry in catechesis and Pastoral Care. We warmly welcome this initiative and look forward to these generous people becoming involved. We are lucky that we have Rita O'Dwyer from our area. The future is in all our hands, We are called to become aware of our own gifts and to encourage and enable the gifts of others. I conclude with a prayer from planetary prayers.

*I am too young to be dead
To be stagnant in Spirit
Inspire me to speak original and
Life giving words
And to creatively give shape to the new
Come and teach me how to
Dance with delight
Whenever you send a new
Melody my way*

Compassion and healing

Compassion is not learned without suffering.
Unless we have suffered and wept,
We really don't understand what compassion is,
Nor can we comfort someone who is suffering.
Unless we have walked in darkness,
We cant help wanderers to find their way.
But if we have suffered we become pathfinders for others.
And it is by reaching out to others
That we ourselves are healed.
Jesus bore the marks of our violent world on his body.
Those wounds were the proof of his love.
They were the mortal wounds the Good shepherd
Picked up in caring for his sheep.
The wounds of Jesus are a source of consolation,
Courage, and hope to us in our sufferings.
By his wounds we are healed.
