The conversation for our pastoral area will be in the Health and Wellness Centre in Carrigoran Nursing Home on this Wednesday night, November 7th at 7.30 pm. – Junction 10 off the Motorway!! Each evening is about conversation or Comhrá, as is said as Gaeilge. Caint agus Comhrá. The conversations are not about structures or decisions about the future. We have gathered a lot about that and it has been good. However, this evening is about listening to each other to see where we are at. How we feel as people of faith and communities or faith, at this time. They offer space to think and talk together. Much has happened in recent months that has impacted on our faith and on our faith communities. It is good to take time to reflect on that, to notice how we feel, to pay attention to how we have been encouraged or discouraged in our faith journey.

Kieran is a farmer who, after his emigrant days in London as a youth and his later marketing role with Bord Fáilte, established himself as a major entertainment promoter from the 1970s onwards. He recalls his enterprising development of Katie Daly's in Killaloe-Ballina into a top-class social venue, matching the shifting fashions of late 20th century entertainment, from ballroom to cabaret to disco. He shares fond memories of his interactions with the late and much loved Fr Jack O'Keefe, CC in bringing many major acts to the Parochial Hall in Miltown. Fáilte roimh chách. Admission free.

WELL DONE KIB U14 GIRLS!

KIB 9-10 Crusheen 4-0: Kilmurry Ibrickane won the Girls U14 B Cup Final on Sunday last in perfect conditions in Eire Og. In a keenly contested first half, an early Caitlin O'Connor goal got KIB off to a great start. Further points from Emma Murray, Sophie Daly, Joanna Doohan and Katie McMahon kept the scoreboard ticking over for KIB. However Crusheen stayed in touch with 3 goals to keep them well in the game with the first half coming to a close. A late Sophie Daly goal, after a great team move, put KIB in a half time lead of 2-6 to 3-0. KIB started the second half in blistering fashion with 3 goals inside the first 5 mins from Ellen O'Donoghue, Caitlin O'Connor and Rachel Tubridy – the latter after a storming run all the way from centre back. In truth Crusheen never really recovered from this scoring burst, and further goals from Katie McMahon 2, Ellie Hanrahan & Joanna Doohan along with points from Sophie Daly 2, Caitlin O'Connor and Katie McMahon meant KIB ran out very convincing winners in the end. To their credit Crusheen never gave up but all they could manage in reply was a solitary goal as a KIB defence, well marshalled by Roisin Montgomery & Rachel Tubridy, kept them at bay. In accepting the cup, Captain Roisin Montgomery thanked the management of Senan McCarthy, Patrick Montgomery, Francis Doohan and Kate Montgomery for all their hard work over the year.

Team: Grace Montgomery, Aoibhnaid O'Dea, Roisin Montgomery, Luisne O'Dea, Chloe O'Brien, Rachel Tubridy, Amber O'Connor, Joanna Doohan, Sophie Daly, Emma Murray, Caitlin O'Connor, Ellie Hanrahan, Ellen O'Donoghue, Katie McMahon, Aoife Corry, Muireann Punch.

Annual Killaloe Diocesan In-Service

The Priests of the diocese will be on annual diocesan in-service in Loughrea from Sunday evening November 11th to Wednesday lunch time November 14th. This is a very important time for priests to be together and engage in on-going personal and skill development. It is hoped that all priests in active ministry would be completely free from pastoral engagements during this time. A panel of retired priests have kindly agreed to provide emergency cover during these days, should the need arise. In the unlikely event where this cover might not be available it would be appreciated if funerals could be suspended until the priest returns on Wednesday afternoon. In parishes where training has taken place a community led liturgy will replace the daily Mass.
