

SYMPATHY: We offer our sympathy, support and prayers to the family, friends and relatives of Francis Kelly, Ballard Road, Miltown Malbay buried last weekend. Bridie Daly nee Clancy, Shanaway died recently. Joe Hardaker, Goleen, father of Eithne Killeen, buried during the week. May They Rest in Peace. The death has taken place of Martin Casey, a native of Quilty, where he ran a successful business until he and his family moved to Dublin in 1970. He was a very active GAA man and popular as both a player for Quilty and later as a selector for the Kilmurry Ibrickane senior team. While in Dublin, he kept in touch with the happenings on the football scene in his native parish and was a very proud man on St. Patrick's day 2010 when they played in the All Ireland club final in Croke Park, just a stones throw from where he lived in Clonliffe Road. While an active driver, he made an annual visit to his parish and always referred to the N7 as "the Quilty road". He was the last survivor of the 1939 Quilty team that won the Senior Championship in Miltown, defeating Kilrush Shamrocks 1-5 to 0-2. Martins final call came on the 21st March and he was laid to rest with his beloved wife, Eucharie, in St. Fintans Cemetery in Sutton in his 95th year, having had a quality life to the very end. WE WISH THE COMMUNITY AROUND COORE CHURCH A VERY SUCCESSFUL YEAR OF CELEBRATION AS THEY BEGIN WITH THEIR EASTER DAWN MASS.

I SEE HIS BLOOD UPON THE ROSE

I see his blood upon the rose
And in the stars the glory of his eyes,
His body gleams amid eternal snows,
His tears fall from the skies.

I see his face in every flower;
The thunder and the singing of the birds
Are but his voice—and carven by his power
Rocks are his written words.

All pathways by his feet are worn,
His strong heart stirs the ever-beating sea,
His crown of thorns is twined with every thorn,
His face is every tree.
