Prepare the Way

Everything we do can prepare the way for God. For God makes his home among us, and Jesus is born to dwell within each of us.

In love and in friendship, there is the meeting-place of God and people, as in the love and the promise of Mary there was the space for God to become one of us.

In our human love we prepare the way for the love of God, in our human forgiveness we prepare the way for the forgiveness of God, in our human compassion we prepare the way for compassion of God.

Our human work for the betterment of people prepares the way for the justice of God, and our human way of reconciliation for the grace of reconciliation of God and his people.

In love, forgiveness and compassion we are sharing in the very life of God.

Without our co-operation, there can be no justice of God, no reconciliation of God, no speaking of the word of God, for without our voice the word of God is silent.

Advent invites us to choose love, to commit our lives to prepare the way for God.

It is our faith, a faith born of love, a faith born in the everyday as Jesus was born of Mary, that the Lord is born each year in the desire of his people to live within the love of God and share this love in life.
