I pray for those you have given me, because they belong to you.

In the hour of Jesus' death, you might wonder what was on his mind. Did he wonder about the success of his mission, or how his message would be spread?

Maybe, or maybe not.

But we do know that he prayed for his friends. I pray for those you have given me, because they belong to you.

From the supper room where he looked at his friends, with love and sadness in his heart, he prayed for them, and assured them that he would always be with them in bread and wine.

And from the cross he looked on all his friends, who stood at a distance. And he looked beyond his friends to all who would believe in him.

I pray for those you have given me, because they belong to you.

He prays for you now, as he prayed for you then. Praying like a father for a daughter, a mother for a son, a friend for a friend, a grandparent for a grandchild.

Allow him to pray for you; allow him to reach out to you in love, for real prayer is to teach us to love one another. And join with his prayer for those you wish to pray for.

I pray for those you have given me, because they belong to you.

NATIONAL CARERS WEEK: Is the week from June 12 to June 17 and it would be appropriate to mention at Masses on the weekend of June 11 /12 the great work which Carers do throughout the year. You might include a prayer in the prayers of the faithful, a mention in the homily or at the end of Mass or perhaps a Blessing of Caring Hands. Also perhaps you might put a note in the newsletter highlighting the great contribution which Carers make to the wellbeing of our communities. It is often difficult and relentless work, eating into free time and energy. It often goes unnoticed except inside the immediate family
