A DAY OF HARMONY SINGING TO UPLIFT AND SOOTH THE SPIRITS OF ITALY. A day of harmony singing to uplift and soothe the spirits of Italy from the base of a tree. He felt really uncomfortable at this sight and gently turned over the bird with a stick. To his surprise, three tiny chicks scurried under the dead mother’s wings. The loving mother bird, keenly aware of the approaching disaster had carried her beloved chicks to the base of the tree and had protected them under her wings, even though she knew she would. She could have flown to safety with her strong wings but decided to stay to protect her new born chicks. The story goes on, as those under the cover of her wings would live.

“We thank our mother’s for all the sacrifices they have made for us.”

Daily Masses
Mullagh Mondays to Thursdays. Wednesday Service of Word & Eucharist. Thursday to Saturday at 10am.

Meeting for those who took part in the 4 week bereavement course on Monday evening in the meeting room of Mullagh Hall at 8pm. Marie O’Connell Quin, Killaloe Diocesan Pastoral Worker will be attending. Last week a number of parishioners met and are hoping to begin the work of a Bereavement group. This is a very welcome addition to the life of the parish. We all need help and support after the loss of loved ones. We can explore how we can be there for each other at times of loss.
